Republican Party of New Mexico Launches New Website

ALBUQUERQUE—The Republican Party of New Mexico is pleased to announce the launch of its new website. The site's restructure underscores the Party's renewed commitment to communicating its conservative message to voters statewide.

"We hope that loyal supporters and first-time visitors alike will find the website informative and useful," stated Executive Director Ryan Cangioli. "It is the Party's intent to use this site as a way to connect directly with New Mexicans throughout the state."

In order to enhance Republican efforts at the local level, the new website provides a virtual office for each of the state's thirty-three Republican county parties. Some of the site's other features include: opportunities to get involved with the Party; Republican positions on critical issues; the Chairman's blog; and Republican Party news. Candidate information will continue to be updated as the 2010 election cycle nears.

Visitors are encouraged to stop by the new site at: www.gopnm.com.
