In Case You Missed It
DEM CHAIR CANDIDATE SAYS GOV “STRONGER THAN EVER”

Albuquerque, NM – Democrat candidate for state chairman Sam Bregman, who was most recently in the news defending an accused child molester, wrote a column in which he accidentally included something that was accurate when he described the strength of Governor Susana Martinez.

Bregman wrote, “...He (Democratic Chairman Javier Gonzales) failed miserably last year and has failed to respond, stand up and fight Susana Martinez over the last six months. She is stronger than ever!” (full column: <http://www.nmpolitics.net/index/2011/04/democrats-it%E2%80%99s-time-to-elect-a-new-leader/>)

“For once, the Republican Party of New Mexico wholeheartedly agrees with Sam Bregman,” said Bryan Watkins, Executive Director of the Republican Party of New Mexico.
